Virginia Anderson

For all the saints who poured love and wisdom and hot chocolate into our lives,

For all the saints whose smiles and touch we miss the most,

For all the saints who helped us find our voice,

For all the saints whom we cannot bear to live without,

For all the saints whom we have begun to forgive,

For all the saints who forgave us more often than we deserved,

For all the saints whose lives continue in ours,

We honor you on this day.

We hold your sacred life up to God.

We bear witness to the future we have shaped out of your existence. Amen!

Mark 12:28-34 NIV

The Greatest Commandment

²⁸ One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

²⁹ “The most important one,” answered Jesus, “is this: ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.’^[a] ³⁰ Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’^[b] ³¹ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’^[c] There is no commandment greater than these.”

³² “Well said, teacher,” the man replied. “You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him. ³³ To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

³⁴ When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And from then on no one dared ask him any more questions.

Opening Prayer

Holy God, God of Life and Death,

While this holy day is set aside to give thanks for the saints, we experience it as bittersweet. Often, the loss of our saints still weighs us down. This year some of our saints haven't had their lives celebrated yet. Yet we seek to live, and to live lives worthy of theirs. Help us today, to give thanks, to stay present, to be inspired, and to be honest about loss and gratitude. Amen

A Litany of Praise for the God of All The Saints

Gracious God, you are to be praised for the women and men whose faithful witness to your love inspires each generation of your people.

Mindful of all those who have gone on ahead of us, teach us to follow their example:

To feed the poor; to support and comfort those who mourn;

to cherish and learn from the merciful; to be humbled by, and stand with, the peacemakers.

Let us clearly recognize what it means to be called the children of God, and may we know we are to be your saints.

Neither by our own choosing nor in our own strength, but simply by the call of Christ Jesus our Savior.

Loving God, the generations rise and pass away before you.

You are the strength of those who labor; you are the rest of the blessed dead. We rejoice in the company of your saints.

We remember all who have lived in faith, all who have peacefully died, and especially those most dear to us who rest in you, whose names we remember before you now.

(reading of names; family members are asked to stand as names are read)

Give us in time our portion with those who have trusted in you and have striven to do your holy will.

We bless you for their lives and love, and rejoice for them that "all is well, and all manner of things will be well." Amen
